BROCADE

Exam Security

Brocade is committed to maintaining the credibility and value of our program to our customer base. We are a member of the Association of Test Publishers, and participate in the Security Committee. We have implemented multiple initiatives to protect against exam fraud, and to defend the integrity of the program.

Some of our actions to deter cheating include:

1. Asking candidates to agree to a non-disclosure, and terms and conditions agreement before taking any exam.
2. Revoking certifications and instituting lifetime bans for any breach of conduct
3. Monitoring exam and testing center performance
4. Confronting Internet-based infringement sites
5. Working with other certification program managers to share information

Non-disclosure (Candidate) Agreement

Execution of a candidate agreement is in the best interest of all Brocade Professionals. The Agreement highlights the need to maintain exam integrity, and explains Brocade's right to take actions as necessary, even if a credential is awarded. The agreement is at the end of this document.

Credential Revocation

In certain circumstances, Brocade may revoke any and all credentials held by a participant and permanently ban the person from the program. We have a zero-tolerance policy towards cheating and breaching the terms and conditions of the Non-disclosure (Candidate) Agreement.

Actions and Behaviors to Avoid

The following actions will be considered a violation of the Non-disclosure (Candidate) Agreement:

1. Discussing exam content with others
2. Using unauthorized study materials
3. Accessing unauthorized or infringed content from non-sanctioned third-party sites
4. Having someone take the exam on your behalf
5. Using stolen test content
6. Participating in brain dump sites or forums by contributing information
7. Requesting brain dump information about an exam
8. Reproducing test material in any format

Unauthorized Materials and Third-Party Offers Policy

Brocade does not endorse, encourage or recommend using any "study" materials from third-party vendors. If a site makes a claim like a "100% pass guarantee" that should be a red flag that this is a site to be avoided. Ignorance is not a valid defense. On the next page is a list of known third-party intellectual property infringement sites, vendors where we have had to take actions to have our intellectual property, in the form of exam content or study guides removed. Brocade does not warrant that list is complete, and may add or remove sites to the list at any time.

BROCADE

Unauthorized Third-Party “Training” Sites

Brocade recognizes these sites as infringers and unauthorized distributors of exam preparation material. The list is subject to change. Do not even be tempted to visit these sites. As of 11/15/2011 the current list includes:
